BRYAN AND STEVENSON.The "Boy Orator" And Grover Cleveland's Running Mate.*FREE SILVER THE ISSUE.*Fourth of July Convention Has a "Hot Time."*BRYAN SAYS "IT WAS SUDDEN."*WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, of Nebraska, for President. ADLAI E. STEVENSON, of Illinois, for Vice-President.

The chief center of interest on the glorious Fourth this year was the assembling in convention of the Democratic forces at Kansas City. Large crowds were in attendance and there was everything but a dull time experienced. It had been hoped that the nomination of Bryan for President would occur on that historic day and so make one more link in the chain of liberty by forging another blow for independence, but that plan was frustrated by a wrangle among the members of the committee on platform which caused some delay.

It was in the privacy of these closely guarded rooms that the real fight of the convention was made, the issue being the keynote of the campaign—imperialism and all the anti or free silver. Bryan from his new front porch at Lincoln manipulated the wires. He would stand on free silver or nothing and the silver-tongued orator, who from his vantage point of eloquence, magnetism and a four year's ceaseless striving to win the hearts of his party, carried his point by one vote. Free silver will be the paramount issue again and over this well worn and out-of-date campaign cry will the Republicans ride to victory on the safe and magnificent steed—prosperity.

Wednesday, the 4th, was spent in arranging the platform which appears in this issue. It is clear and to the point. It is anti-everything and makes the free silver again an all important issue. It is the '96 Chicago platform emphasized.

On Thursday William Jennings Bryan was placed in nomination by Oldham of Nebraska. This motion was greeted with prolonged applause and the nomination was made by acclamation. Mr. Bryan was not present and received the news quietly at his home at Lincoln.

Thursday was spent in an effort to secure a Vice-Presidential nominee which was effected at half past two in the afternoon when Adlai Stevenson, of Illinois, Grover Cleveland's running mate, was given the honor of making the race with Bryan. Stevenson, Hill, Towne, Patrick and Lewis were all placed in nomination and numerous eloquent seconding speeches were made. David B. Hill of New York, would have received the nomination but in a brief but decisive speech, he urged the convention to recall his name. For personal reasons and he believed it best for the party, he declined the nomination. After Hill's refusal the convention nominated Vice-President Adlai Stevenson on the first ballot. Stevenson was at the home of his son-in-law, Rev. Martin Hardin, at Lake Minnetonka when word of nomination. He remarked that he had not been a candidate but would accept the nomination and do his best to secure the election of the Democratic ticket—Bryan and Stevenson.

TWO FUNERALS.Pearl Garrett and Lillian Bishop*Were Buried Saturday,*July 7.*ILL ONLY A SHORT TIME.*COULDN'T FIND SEATS.*The County Capital Was Overflowing With People on The Fourth.*HARDINSBURG, Ky., July 9, (Special.)

The trains were all crowded that came to Hardinsburg on the Fourth, so much so that a great many of the men couldn't find seats. It was a pity. But cook sure, any old thing of a man that couldn't stand on the train a few miles ought to have been left at home with the kids. And did you see those poor women dragging along the streets, on the way to the picnic? Bless them, they made me feel bad. I just wanted to hire Tom Blythe's boys and dump 'em all in it, but I didn't. Why is it the women always want to go wherever the men do anyhow? Don't you know men haven't got any sense, and you oughtn't to be following 'em around everywhere no how.

CASTORIAFor Infants and Children.*The Kind You Buy Always Bought*at the Store of Dr. J. C. H. H. H.*WOMEN TO THE FRONT.*Woman Suffrage Amendment in Oregon Not Overwhelmingly Defeated.*WOMAN'S DAY AT CHAUTAUQUA.

The statement has been sent broadcast that the suffrage amendment in Oregon was overwhelmingly defeated. This was taken advantage of by the opposition and all the other defeats of Woman Suffrage propositions added to it, as proof that Woman Suffrage was losing ground. While the returns from the vote on the Woman Suffrage amendment in Oregon are coming in slowly, the last accounts show the amendment is ahead. The official returns show in favor of nineteen counties and their aggregate vote is, Ye, 12,323; No, 11,278. Of the nineteen counties only six failed to give a majority for the women. Of these six, one, Lake, was a tie; another, Van Hook, went 'No' by only one vote, and a third, Unadilla, by three votes. The bulk of the opposition is said to have been in Multnomah county, where the vote of the women was cast solidly against Woman Suffrage. There are fourteen counties yet to hear from. Oregon suffragists believe that all but three of these will give the amendment a majority. The report that it had been defeated by an overwhelming majority was without foundation. The vote was so close that it is even yet impossible to tell which way it has gone.

The management of the Chautauqua Assembly have set apart July 14th as Woman's Day. The meetings will be under the auspices of the National Suffrage Association. Susan B. Anthony, the veteran leader and Honorary President, will preside both morning and afternoon. Carrie Chapman Catt, newly elected President, and Rev. Anna H. Shaw, the Vice-President of the Association will be the principal speakers of the day. On the Monday following the President will have charge of a work conference for the benefit of those interested in the subject who are stopping on the grounds. Everyone is invited to attend this conference.

ELIZABETH MORRIS BAROCK, Supt. Press Work N. A. W. S. A.Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your neighbors and grandmothers thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration, Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and out of their heads and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing more the matter with you. For sale by—A. R. Finner.

Returned to Birmingham, Ala.

Jed Carter and Charley Hawley, who have been spending their vacation at Haverhill, leave today for their home in Birmingham, Ala. Both these young men held lucrative positions in their adopted city. Their visit home has been of mutual pleasure to themselves and their friends who regret their departure. They will be accompanied to Alabama by Charley Goering, another of Haverhill's interesting young men.

DIES OF OLD AGE.Had a Large Connection in This County.

Mrs. Judith Meador, one of the oldest women living in the vicinity of Hardinsburg, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Cook, last Sunday. Mrs. Meador was eighty-six. She has been ill for some time, and death was due to the infirmities of old age. Mrs. Meador was twice married, her first husband being Alanson Pulliam, and her second husband Thomas Meador. Mrs. Meador had a large connection in the county, but the most of her immediate family have long since passed away.

A. M. Pulliam, Mrs. John Cook, Mattie Faye, Thos. Pulliam, Palestine, Dr. J. W. Meador, Custer, and Mrs. Lucy Humphrey, West View, are the children who survive her.

It's Just Lovely.The Hardinsburg Lake A Fashionable Health Resort.

There are a great many fine looking girls here now, says the Hardinsburg correspondent. Some of them belong here and some have come from a distance. The rumor got out some how that this lake below town was the finest spot on earth for folks to go a courting, so now most any lovely evening you can see them moving off in pairs in that direction, and when that's the case you may know that there is a love scrape on hand or one just coming up. It's magnificent, you know. The girls say it's just lovely.

MONEY PLENTIFUL.Crops in The Lone Star State Are Bringing Good Prices.*COTTON SLIGHTLY DAMAGED.

McKinney, Texas, June 30, 1900. Mr. Editor:—With your permission I will again let my friends and the readers of the News hear some news from Texas. We are having some very dry weather just now. Corn is suffering for rain but farmers are having a nice time for threshing. About one-half of the grain has already been threshed in the county. Oats are making seventy-five to one hundred bushels per acre and wheat is making twenty to forty with an average of about twenty-eight bushels per acre. I have just threshed nineteen hundred and six bushels from eighty-three acres of land and sold the same for $1,162.48. The cotton crop has been damaged some by wet worms which have taken the second trial at it and in many places have almost destroyed the crop. The estimate on the present crop is four to five million bales against nine million last year and thirteen million year before last. The present crop is expected to bring a fancy price, also the crop of 1901.

If any of the boys in old Kentucky ever expect to come to Texas to farm, I would advise them to come this fall. Come early, sow wheat and raise a cotton crop next year. The people here sold about all their surplus horses and mules to the government for cash and the great grain crop is now going on the market, with a good price for the present cotton crop.

The money crop will be plentiful and it will be a good time for all people with brains and vim who come into the Lone Star State looking for the almighty dollar.

Respectfully, W. W. Galloway."Hunger Is The Best Sauce."

Yat some people are never hungry. Whatever they eat has to be "forced down." There is, of course something about these people. By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time they are given an appetite and then they enjoy eating and food nourishes them. If you find your appetite failing, just try a bottle of Hood's. It is a true stomach tonic and every dose does good.

NOTED ENGINEER DEAD.Mr. Hamilton Smith, Formerly of Cannerton, Died at Durham, Mass. Last Week.

Mrs. M. H. Hannan, of Haverhill, left for the east last week upon the receipt of a telegram telling of the sudden death of her brother Hamilton Smith, at his home, Durham, Mass.

Mr. Smith has been a hard worker until the last few years and has amassed a great fortune. As a civil engineer he reached the top of his profession and was in the employ of the Rothschilds of London, in developing the Transvaal gold fields of South Africa, at which time he was said to have received the largest salary ever paid a man in the world, $100,000 a year.

NOTICETo The Trustees And Teachers Of The Common Schools of Breckinridge County.

The Teachers' Institute for this county for the current school year will be held at Hardinsburg, beginning on the 23rd day of July, 1900, and continuing 5 days.

Please to notify promptly, as the law requires, every teacher in your district. Observe that in addition to direct oral or written information, written notices are to be posted. If the trustees have a concert with a teacher who is absent from the county it is your duty to write him or her at once. You are notified that Wednesday will be Teachers' day.

is the baking powder of general use, its sale exceeding that of all other baking powders combined. Royal Baking Powder has not its counterpart at home or abroad. Its qualities, which make the bread more healthful and the cake of finer appearance and flavor, are peculiar to itself and are not constituent in other leavening agents.

Great efforts are made to sell them baking powder under the plea that their sale is many times as cheap as the others. The advertisement that they are cheaper made is an admission that they are inferior. But, when you consider that a corruptive poison and should not be used in food, no matter how cheap.

The Red Men had a big day on the Fourth at Hardinsburg. The crowd in numbers broke the record for such an occasion for many years past. People came from every direction, and the crowd was estimated at from fifteen hundred to two thousand. The collection-ers stands did a thriving business, and put many surplus dollars in the treasury of the Red Men's order. We understand an effort will be made to erect a monument to the memory of Wm. Hardin. The monument should cost several hundred dollars, and will be put in the court house yard. The Red Men say they will contribute liberally to this fund if it can be gotten under way. There was no speaking on the grounds, and a great many went away disappointed. The managers had written to several parties but all of them failed to appear. The people, however, seemed to enjoy themselves and the day passed off very pleasantly.

REPAIRING MACHINES.

Mr. L. R. Bruner, of Fordville, came to the city Monday. He will remain here for several days and those who have machines of any make that need repairing will do well to consult Mr. Bruner as he has had years of experience in this particular vocation.

The News takes pleasure in recommending him to the public, as he is a man of integrity and a thorough gentleman.

Freezing Weather Is July

Would cause great discomfort and loss, but fortunately it is seldom known. A vast amount of misery is caused at this season, however, by impoverished blood, poor appetite and general debility. These conditions may be remedied by combining the blood and toning the stomach with Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine serves to put new life in the whole physical system, simply because of its wonderful power to purify, enrich and vitalize the blood, create an appetite and invigorate the digestive functions. We advise you to get a bottle and try it if you are not feeling just right. It will do you more good than any weeks' vacation. It is the best medicine money can buy.

FOR A FAIR ELECTION LAW.

When appointed by the non-meeting of citizens of Louisville, March 9th to send through the State printed matter urging the repeal of the Goebel Election Law and the adoption of a fair election law. None of us are politicians, office-holders or office-seekers. This committee has nothing to do with either party, or the Highest Election League, or any corporation, or any political organization. We are simply private citizens who feel interested in the peace, welfare, and good name of the State. Most of us are Democrats, but we all believe that the Goebel Law is essentially undemocratic; that it has already brought great trouble upon our people; that so long as it stands we have no peace, that there can be no fair reason for retaining it upon the statute books, and that all men should desire its repeal. That the law is undemocratic is plain upon its face. It gives absolute control of the appointment of all election officers everywhere in the State to a Central Board of three State Election Commissioners (Messrs. Poyntz, Yontz, and Fulton) who are not elected by the people, who are not responsible to the people, who can be not removed by the people. It gives these three men also the supreme power to make the final count of votes in all contested elections, and to decide who shall have the office and who shall not. The only exception to this rule is in the case of a contested election of governor or lieutenant governor, which the Constitution provided shall be determined by the legislature; but the members of the legislature get their credentials from county election commissioners whom the State Board appoints and may remove at will at any instant. If one of the board dies or resigns, the people are not filled by the other one. When Pryor and Ellis resigned, Poyntz exercised the extraordinary power of appointing Fulton and Yontz to their places.

The principle of the law is undemocratic, and no amendment yet suggested can make it democratic. No amendment can do so which does not really amount to a total repeal. It is true from the people of each county, they always have before had, to elect their own county officers (formerly their county judges) to appoint the election officers for each precinct in the county. Until the Goebel Law was enacted the people of each county, upon discovering any unfairness or fraud in the appointment of election officers in that county, always had it in their power to punish the fraud by electing the man who committed it at the next election. Under the Goebel Law that power is taken from them. If the State Board transgressed, it has only to appoint men on the county boards who are willing to do its bidding. If they refuse, the State Board can remove them at any moment. In a word, the Goebel Law subjects every election in every county in the State to the arbitrary power of the three members of the State Board, and then makes them the final judges to say who is elected in every case, save only in the case of Governor or Lieutenant Governor. The Central Board has not more absolute power over him than the three Election Commissioners could exercise over the people of Kentucky, or over the disposition to exercise it are not afraid to do it. Such a dependence of popular rights upon the will of three men (however good and wise) whom the people can not elect, must not only be abhorrent to every man who really believes in the most essential of all democratic principles, the right of the people to elect their own representatives, but it is also a political slavery. Will the Kentuckians approve it? Ought they to do so? Should not every man who loves his State, who believes in free government, who would have the people of Kentucky a free people, who believes in fair play, use his influence for the repeal of this law? We make no appeal as party men in this emergency; we are nothing to us. There are men who can not understand this sentiment. We wish them to understand it, and we wish them to understand the moral sense of the people. We accuse no one. We defend no one. We recognize the errors, the wrongs, the crimes of politicians of both parties. But we believe that the great mass of men of both parties want what is honorable, right and fair. It is these that we earnestly urge to consider what we say and to use every endeavor to secure the prompt and total repeal of this undemocratic and dangerous election law. It has already done great harm. If it is not repealed, it will do greater harm hereafter. It was a Democratic measure, and therefore our main appeal must needs be to Democrats. We ask each of these to calmly consider whether the honor and the peace of our State would not be furthered by the repeal of the law. We ask him whether its retention will not be a plain confession of weakness by the Democratic party, and prove to the world that the people of this State are unwilling to let the people of each county elect the men or women who are to appoint the election officers for that county? Why do they want to leave power over elections in the hands of three men on the State board, all of whom, or a controlling majority of whom, are Democrats?

No amendment which does not amount to a repeal will leave the law anything but what it now is—despotic. The amendment proposed by Senator Blackburn and recommended by the recent Democratic Convention, to the effect that the Republican party shall be given a minority representation on the State Board, is perfunctory. It would not only leave complete control of the board's action in the hands of the Democratic majority of its members, but it does not answer the objection that the board is not elected by the people, is not responsible to the people, and has power to nullify the votes of the people.

Again, the law is not only undemocratic; on its face it is unfair. To leave to partisans of one party the appointment of all the election officers of the State is plainly unfair. It can not but result in fraud. Such leaders are sure to provoke more bad feeling and probably bloodshed. The State must suffer. It will take years for Kentucky to recover from the bad effects of what has already occurred under the Goebel Law. It is time to make a new master for the great body of Democrats to permit a few law-abiding leaders to prevent the repeal of a law which policy as well as fair dealing and the peace and good name of the State demand.

Our regular judges under the Constitution are elected by the people. The county judge is elected by the people of the county. If the county is Democratic, the judge will be Democratic. If it is Republican, he will be a Republican. The circuit judge is elected by the people of the circuit, and will be of the party having a majority in that circuit. The same is true of the Court of Appeals judges. This is as it should be. The judge here elected by the people is responsible to the people and can be defeated for re-election if they wish. This is democracy; true home-rule democracy. But although not called judges, the most powerful judges in Kentucky are the three State Election Commissioners who are above the people and judge of elections. Every judge in Kentucky will hereafter depend for his place on the certificate of these three men. They can control the election of the legislators who are to decide contests for governor and lieutenant governor, and, every four years, re-elect State election commissioners even more easily than they control the election of other State officers; for all they have to do is to make the county election commissioners give certificates of election to a majority of legislative candidates who are elected by the people. That majority can then decide who shall be legislators, and turn out any man whom they can not control. Not only are these three State Election Commissioners the most powerful judges in the State, whose decision upon the vital question of elections is final and not reviewable by any of the courts provided by the Constitution, but they constitute the only court in Kentucky which the very object of the law is to make partisan. To any man who has sense of justice this is appalling.

Suppose the Constitution of the State, instead of allowing the people to elect them, had provided that the judges of the Court of Appeals should all be Democrats or all Republicans; would the fair-minded people of Kentucky ever have approved it? And yet we have seen that the State Board of Election Commissioners, in the all-important matter of elections, is above the Court of Appeals. That court holds itself powerless to correct any injustice or any fraud, however flagrant, which these three all-powerful State Election Commissioners may perpetrate. The spirit of Anglo-Saxon liberty is dead, indeed, in Kentucky, if, after all we have witnessed under this Goebel Election Law, the people will longer tolerate its tyrannical and pretended modification of it.

Not as partisans, but as citizens who have an interest in the State, we appeal to you, not as partisans but as patriots, to speak out to the men. Talk to your neighbors and demand of your leaders and representatives the unconditional repeal of this election law, not merely as plainly the best policy of the Democratic party, but as demanded for the peace, welfare, and honor of the State.

A FALSE ALARM.

It Came at a Most Inopportune Time For the Pretty Angler.

"And it all came from a little, petty, miserable, insignificant, nickel-plated alarm clock that cost me just 50 cents at a bargain sale!" exclaimed the pretty girl in blue, with flashing eyes, to her sympathetic friend. "I haven't the slightest idea why I bought it unless it was because it was so cheap, for goodness knows I didn't need it! But buy it I did and carried it home, where I bragged of my bargain all the rest of the day. It wouldn't run more than half the time, and finally I turned it over to my little sister to play with."

"You know the time I have had with that eligible young man and how I have quarreled with every girl friend I know who has dared to look at him? But you don't know how many nights I have wasted sitting up planning a campaign that would be successful!"

"Well, he called the other evening, and I served notice on the rest of the family that we wanted the drawing room to ourselves that evening, for I felt sure that the supreme moment had arrived. I wasn't disappointed. We were sitting side by side on a divan, quite by accident, looking at some engravings when he began, and I tried to look as if I was awfully surprised. But he hadn't spoken more than three words before that miserable alarm clock went off right under us, when she was through playing with it."

"From the way the young man jumped you would have thought that he was a part of the alarm and always acted that way when the alarm was sprung. He made for the door, mumbled something that I didn't catch on account of the noise, and the alarm made, and he was outdoors before the divan ceased and gave me a chance to collect my wits. And to think that it was all caused by a little, miserable, petty!" The pretty girl in blue gave it up and burst out crying.—Detroit Free Press.

Poor Shots.

All the principal correspondents at the recent shooting contest at Danbury, N. H., were the artist, The Daily News and The Times Magazine correspondents as well as Sir Howard Vincent have testified to the poor shooting in unmistakable terms. Mr. Villiers' experience was a particularly striking one. While asleep in his Cape cart on the road he was incessantly pelted with 100 yards off by three gentlemen in khaki, who mistook him for a Boer farmer. As he merely patted it, "I never felt anywhere so safe as when under my countrymen's fire." An analysis of the "withering rifle fire of the British advance" shows that in very few instances was a Boer hit more than once, while many of our men had several Mawer bullets through them. In some instances as many as 12 bullets in English as well as foreign doctors in Boer hospitals report that almost all the wounded Boers have come to their injuries by artillery fire. Dr. von Gerat states that the British rifle is almost quite without effect, which, if the instances I can cite of regulars who were hurled to the front and never died a service rifle in their lives be at all general, can hardly rouse surprise.—Nineteenth Century.

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are due to it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kimmer's Swamp-Root, the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At drug stores in fifty-cent bottles. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures.

When you send in your subscription you make your guess. Be sure and write your name, address and guess as plainly as possible. As soon as we receive your subscription we will fill out and send you a certificate corresponding to guess made by you, which will entitle you to any prize that you may draw. Be sure and keep your certificate. We will file the duplicate with The Press Publishing Association. Every subscriber will receive as many certificates and have as many guesses as he sends yearly subscriptions to THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS. If you want more than one guess get your friends and neighbors to subscribe. They will also be entitled to one guess.

poor to keep his hands from the needy, and to open his hand to the poor in need; but the leader in Sunday-School work will do well to remember that all that pertains to general knowledge, and useful information in matters of general interest, will just so far widen his influence and his opportunities in the aid and guidance of others.

Surely, again, Consecration by no means implies that he who has attained it may dispense with that gift known as "executive ability," and which must ever include that of judicial wisdom. It is the quality requisite above all others, perhaps, in the successful government and organization of all work and workers. It is the quality above all others which will require the most careful thought, the most earnest, painstaking study, and the most judicious training.

once. There was— And she called over a number of names. I interrupted her in each case by asking what had become of them. "She's joined the Latter Day Saints," was the answer while the object of my question had neither removed nor died. It seems to me everybody has joined the Latter Day Saints," I commented. "Yes," she replied; "most every one. They had a revival here and got them all except me." "Why didn't you get you?" I asked. "I was too lame to go to 'em," she said frankly.

NOTICE IN ADVANCE.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1900.

BRECKENRIDGE COUNTY never had a finer prospect for crops.

LIND CURTIS has called, that 6,013-000 famine sufferers are receiving relief.

The nearest correct guess to the population of the United States gives $10,000,000 in the News grand distribution.

Next to Wm. J. Bryan, the most conspicuous figure in the Kansas fight for the next week was ex-senator David B. Hill of New York.

$50,000 distributed in one thousand cash prizes to the paid up one year in advance subscribers of the BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

EDITOR SUMMERS of the Elizabethtown News is evidently out in the weather waiting for something political to strike him.

SUBSCRIPTIONS must be fully paid up one year in advance before a subscriber is entitled to a guess in our cash distribution of $50,000.

Mr. Hill, positively declined the nomination for Vice President with Bryan, evidently because he could not walk that free silver plank. In 1896 Mr. Hill was an ardent sound money Democrat.

The St. Louis strike is on again. The boycott is now against the St. Louis Transit company, who it is claimed, violated its contract of July 3, in regard to the re-instatement of striking employees.

W. J. Bryan is incensed at a Mark Hanna himself. What he says goes with the Democrats and what Mark says goes with the Republicans. When Hanna and Bryan differ in being Humanized or Bryanized.

This difficulty attending the election of the Populist and Free-Silver party is in case of national success, they will be unable to give the people any assurance of a stable and well disciplined form of government.

JACK GROSS and the Hon. W. E. Minor are as thick as blackberries in July. They are working to carry this county for Lewis or any other man to beat Beckham and if Dave Murray don't watch 'em they'll do it.

Wm. J. BRYAN and Adlai A. Stevenson, his running mate, are said to be quite opposite in personality. Mr. Bryan is very aggressive while Stevenson is of a compromising disposition. He was made an alternate delegate to the convention but did not attend.

The latest reports from Pekin regarding the safety of the ministers and other foreigners is more favorable. Japan has ordered another expedition of 20,000 men and 1,000 heavy guns. Japan has been appealed for more men and it is believed that more troops have been ordered to the Philippines.

Collector E. T. FRANKS, of Owensboro, Kentucky members of the committee appointed to notify Mr. McKinley of his nomination for President, will join that committee today at Cleveland, O., from which place they will start tomorrow to perform their agreeable mission. Their visit will probably not be unexpected.

Dr. WALTER T. ROBERTS, a practicing physician of Louisville, has been nominated for Governor by the Social Democrats who held their state convention in Louisville last week. Job Harrison for Vice President on the Social Democratic ticket, Eugene Debs and other lights of this political reform party were present and addressed the convention.

It is thus appears the semi-annual statement of the Bank of Hardinsburg. This bank, whose establishment is of comparatively recent date, is doing a good business thanks to the property that prevails throughout the county and to the fine executive ability possessed by the worthy officials whose care and keeping the wealth of the people is conserved.

The first day of the trial of the Gobel assassination cases in the Scott county circuit court at Georgetown Monday, July 9, passed without any dramatic incidents save the searching of the spectators for concealed deadly weapons. The case of Clark Powers was the first called. The defense was not ready and a adjournment was asked and granted. Evidence has been discovered locating the three shots which did not hit Gobel. They are said to have been found in the floor of the Secretary of State's office. The majority of witnesses are present and both sides are said to be anxious for a speedy trial.

GENERAL DIAZ has been re-elected President of Mexico.

DICK OWEN and Dave Moorman came home from the Kansas City Convention delighted with their trip and proud of the work of the convention. They say it was the most enthusiastic body of men they ever saw and that the ticket named is a sure winner. They were loved in their praise of Missouri, its lands, stock and up-to-date farms.

EVERY visitor to the Kansas City Convention who kept his eyes open for the signs of the times and who was capable of being convinced of the right must have returned from the trip to that bustling western city singing a new song. Calamity however no longer has an excuse for existence. The story of generation being converted of the right must have returned from the trip to that bustling western city singing a new song. Calamity however no longer has an excuse for existence. The story of generation being converted of the right must have returned from the trip to that bustling western city singing a new song.

A new phase of detective ingenuity was made man's feat at Kansas City last week which showed Kentonians up in a bad light and sustained their reputation as thrifty desperadoes. On the floor before each bar was a corked key as the cyclone after which is a hole in the floor, covered with ornamental open work. It looks like an immense bar at right angles out of which come drafts of air. Everyone who goes to the bar to get a drink has to cross one of these affairs, the blasts of air from which blow his coat up almost to his shoulders, compelling the use of the house detective to discover what sort of weapons he carries in his hip pocket and to govern himself accordingly.

THE Hon. W. E. Minor has it in for Beckham. Minor was an original Gobel man. He stood up for him in this county when no other man was brave enough to do it. He was sat upon in the convention that elected him to the House. When Gobel got the nomination he went out and spoke for him. Gobel appreciated this and said to Mr. Minor, "I never forget a friend." Goble was assassinated and Minor was a member of the committee that was set up to investigate the death of his chief's wishes. Minor laid his case before Beckham and was not recognized. He was not even given a hearing. Hence it is that he is now doing all he can to beat Beckham.

GOVERNOR ROBERTS is on the right lines in his western speeches. He is patriotic and his countrymen are proud of his chief's wishes. Minor laid his case before Beckham and was not recognized. He was not even given a hearing. Hence it is that he is now doing all he can to beat Beckham.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube becomes inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. A GODLY

MOTHER.

Immortal Life Awaits Her Beyond This "Vale Of Tears"

A LOVING SON'S TRIBUTE.

With grief-laden heart I feel impelled to give expression to my feelings through the medium of your columns to my mother's friends and neighbors in Cloverport, whose sweet sympathy and kind attentions so freely extended during her last illness not only comforted and soothed her gentle heart in the closing days of her pure life but were a solace to each member of the family in the deep anxiety and heart rendings they felt in the presence of such a great and overwhelming sorrow and while no human aid or sympathy could relieve the physical sufferings of her agonizing death, nor assuage the grief of the desolated home, yet the manifestations of love that were shown reached all our hearts and lent a softening, mellowing influence to the keenness of the anguish that only those who have experienced the loss of a loved one can understand. A visitation of Angel Death into a home and claims a devoted mother and the companion of many years. Terrible and heavy as falls the blow I am rejoiced to say that my mother died not only accepted, but a devoted, truest resignation the will of the Master but answered the final summons with the fullest of Christian hope that the immortal life awaited her beyond this "Vale of tears."

BATTLETOWN.

Harvesting about done.

Mr. Ben Cord and Miss Nettie Bennett were united in matrimony July 1st.

Rev. J. B. Haynes officiated.

The Fourth of July celebration given here was a grand success. There was quite a large attendance and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves.

The incident may be accused but the guilty shall reap their reward. If not in this life it will be in the great Judgment, from whose sentence there is no escape.

John ever attended a chewing gum party? This is a new find in society.

Miss Myrtle Chism is the victor here and as a result she has a very nice month.

Rev. Haynes will begin a series of meetings Saturday night at the new church near Cold Spring.

The meetings will be held in the grove and a nice and interesting time is anticipated.

Rev. Bonarth, of Breckinridge county, is expected to help conduct the services.

We need more meetings and better results in this community.

HARDINSBURG

Next Saturday is Democratic Convention day.

Major Horace Scott has returned from Louisville.

Mr. Retell Ratton spent the 4th here with his wife and baby.

Mrs. Nora Lennin and her children are visiting at Stephensport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beard, of Louisville, are visiting Major Scott's family.

Miss Minnie B. Saling, of Evansville, Ind., is visiting Mrs. C. L. Beard.

Miss Maud Smith, of Sturgis, Ky., will be here this week to visit relatives.

Mrs. Ada Meador, of Big Spring arrived last Sunday to visit relatives here.

Mrs. Lena Drury, of Bowling Green, arrived last week to visit Miss Mary Beard.

All of the Hardinsburg Democrats seem to be pleased with the Kansas City ticket.

Miss Ella Clarkson will return to her home in Meade county to spend the summer.

Mrs. Sum and children, of Sacramento, Ky., are here visiting her mother, Mrs. R. May.

We have the largest stock of penny candies in town. Come in and make a selection.—Eclipse.

Pocket knife? Yes, we are right in the market with a fine lot of pocket knives. Come in and see them.—Eclipse.

Everything's going up here. Every thing but the poor workman's wages, and he's got a kick coming that may knock somebody off the perch.

John Huston and wife were here last Sunday, the guests of his mother. John is traveling for a wholesale grocery house in Louisville and his home merchants should remember him when they want to buy groceries.

The young man from Glendale, who drove home with the snow white harness came to stay. He will not spend any more rainy Sundays in the country. No, not while his best girl stays in Hardinsburg.

Judge Nicholas McFarlane seems to be leading the Democratic hosts of the county at present and if the Judge can succeed in carrying them to victory in the next county race he will be a good one to follow.

Picnics usually draw big crowds. The Fourth was a typical picnic day and the crowd came in from all directions.

A picnic is announced for Garfield in the near future, and no doubt there will be plenty of folks to go to Garfield.

So Burrel Beard wants to run for County clerk on the Republican ticket. Well when the Fuls all get in the field for this fat office there will be a mighty mix up among them. If Cunningham goes in the field somebody will know the best.

Mr. Cordie Lewis, the son of Henry Lewis, the shoemaker, was here last week to visit his father. Young Lewis has been living in New Albany, Ind., for many years. He went there forty years ago and began working in the Western Mills and has been with them ever since. He went there when quite a boy, has since married and is doing well. His wife was here with him.

Most of our neighbors spent the 4th at Cannellton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foster, of Louisville, are visiting her mother, Mrs. John Durks.

Dan Willett has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. L. D. Addison, and friends across the river.

Mr. Fred Ghier, of Danvers, Col., is visiting his brothers-in-law, the Messrs. Dick here.

Quite a good many of this community went to the funeral of Mr. Le Roberts, of Stephensport.

The merry hum of the thrasher is heard and farmers are watching closely the wheat market.

Mr. and Mrs. John Durks Jr., returned to Cloverport from a pleasant visit to his mother, Mrs. John Durks, Sr., of the "Highlands."

L. D. Addison went to Louisville to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mr. M. Lampton, the president of the Lampton Crane & Raney Co., of Louisville.

Mrs. Robinson and daughter, Mrs. Caine, and grand-son, George Robinson, of Chicago, who had been visiting relatives at Louisville, are now visiting the family of L. D. Addison.

Mrs. Luther Richardson, of Dayton county arrived yesterday to visit her mother, Mrs. Sallie Yeager.

Miss Elizabeth Bowmer has returned from a visit to Henderson.

The death of Mr. Lewis T. Roberts occurred Sunday morning July 8, at his home near this place. Mr. Roberts had been a great sufferer for a long time from a complication of diseases. Almost one week ago he fell, fracturing his hip from the effects of which his death resulted. He was a man loved and honored by all, warm hearted and noted for his generosity. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the Democratic party. Lewis T. Roberts was born in Russellville, Logan county, June 7, 1855, was married in 1881 to Miss Lettie Moorman, of Stephensport, who, with two sisters, survives him. Mr. Roberts began his business career as a merchant at Union Star, but later went to Stephensport where he was engaged in the mercantile and milling business. He accumulated a vast estate which has been conservatively estimated to be worth $100,000. The funeral services were conducted Monday in the Baptist church July 9th at 8 p. m., by preaching elder Shepherd Campbell, of the M. E. Church. His remains were taken in charge by Mrs. Macaulay and interred in the Hill cemetery. Moonlight Flats. The Moonlight Flats given for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. at the beautiful mansion home of Mr. and Mrs. Plank Monday evening was well attended. The social features of the occasion could not have been improved upon and the financial part was satisfactory, the receipts being $27.00.

CRITICAL PERIODS In Woman's Life Are Made Dangerous by Pelvic Catarrh.

Mrs. Mathilde Richter, Doniphan, Mo., says: "I suffered from catarrh for many years, but since I have been taking Pelvic Catarrh I feel strong and well. I would advise all people to take Pelvic Catarrh. As I used Pelvic Catarrh and now I feel well passing through the change of life, I am positively convinced your beneficial medicine has relieved me from all my ills."

Pelvic Catarrh has raised more women from bed of sickness and set them to work again than any other remedy. Pelvic Catarrh is the bane of womanhood. Pelvic Catarrh is the bane of womanhood in all forms and stages. Mrs. C. M. Hamilton, Columbus, O., says: "I recommend Pelvic Catarrh to all women, believing it to be especially beneficial to them."

Tomorrow night (Tuesday) the young gentlemen who have been entertained by the "X. V. C." club will return the compliment by extending the young ladies a handsome supper at the Salubrious Well. Borden's band will furnish the music and a delightful time is anticipated.

Mrs. W. J. Pagotto's paper on "Decision Day" prepared and read last June before the Sunday School Convention at which appeared in last issue of this paper was not disappointing in any respect. It showed a clear, well defined purpose throughout and seemed with logical arguments. All Sunday school workers and pupils could profit by her well reasoned ideas on "Decision Day." Last Thursday Glendine Hardin and Henry Moorman, two young and great friends were enjoying themselves in Mrs. Moorman's yard shooting at birds with a 22 rifle and making milkshakes. Glendine, while handling the rifle, accidentally discharged it, the ball entering Harry's shoulder and lodging in his neck. Dr. Burch and Dr. Neist probably in the yard but failed to reach it. A Near View of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan.

A big man with a big mind and a big heart. This is the impression William Jennings Bryan makes on persons who are not entirely hostile to his political views. A man of ideas and of ideals. This is the tribute of those who know him well.

A great many people in this country have a personal acquaintance with Mr. Bryan. In his remarkable campaign of four years ago he traveled over 15,000 miles. Since then he has been on the go for the better part of three years. His total mileage since his first trip would equal three times the distance around the earth. Those who have met him once know physically and mentally, as ever in his life.

A friend of Mr. Bryan who visited him at his home recently remarked afterward:

"I have known Bryan for ten years. I have been with him in several of his tours and have seen him regularly every week since his remarkable political career was inaugurated, and I can assert that he is in better condition, physically, today than I have ever known him. His voice has a ring to it that is surprising."

Undoubtedly this is due to the two months of rest which he took recently. His visit to Texas was a recuperative outing, and while he has been at his portunity has offered, not because he has been forced to do it, but because he takes a keen delight in physical exertion and has a genuine love for the country.

As for Mrs. Bryan, she is an absolutely new species of woman among those who have ever stood a chance of becoming mistresses of the White House. She is a helpmate to her husband in the fullest sense of the term. His life is her life, whether he works or plays. Whether he weeds his garden or addresses a national convention.

In her husband's progress she has kept pace almost step by step. It is a well known fact that they were school mates together. When he was graduated from Illinois college, he was the valedictorian of his class. Mrs. Bryan was then Miss Mary Baird, also graduated from the same institution, and she was valedictorian of her class as well.

After they were married and Mr. Bryan took up the law she also took to lawbooks. She was admitted to the bar in 1888.

When he entered politics, she informed herself about things politically. She helped him polish his speeches. Night after night they worked together, she revising and suggesting as the pages of manuscript came from his pen.

But for all this Mrs. Bryan is a home making woman and a tender mother. The Bryans have three children, the eldest of whom, Miss Ruth Bryan, has been attending school in Washington. She is 18 and almost a young lady. William J. Bryan, Jr., is 12 and Grace, the baby of the Bryan family, is 6. They are bright, pretty children, and the Democratic candidate is never happier than when the family is all together. During his campaign trips the younger children stay with relatives in Illinois.

When Mrs. Bryan first went to Washington, a congressman, who had learned with surprise that she had been admitted to the bar, asked somewhat sarcastically with what line of law she was most familiar.

"Domestic relations, sir," came the answer, as sharp as the snap of a whip.

Mrs. Bryan is a brown eyed, brown haired little woman whose head comes just about to her husband's shoulder. She has a pleasant, oval face and a trim figure. As might be suspected, she cares little for society. She has had to times for teas and functions, but probably she would enjoy a national convention of social life if she had the leisure. She is certainly not unsociable.

While Mr. Bryan was a congressman he and his wife lived in a small, quiet boarding house near the capitol. In those days she dressed simply in grays and browns and blacks. Her dresses were often of unfashionable cut. In short, she was said to be old fashioned. But today Mrs. Bryan is well dressed. While her gowns are as modest as ever, in color and generally severely plain, they are well made and do full justice to her trim figure. So during the present campaign, if you see a pretty little woman with a shapely head of brown the man almost as well as if they had lived neighbors to her for years. He is not an erratic nature. He is not a man of moods. He comes as near to being stable as any man whose character is mellowing in the summer days of experience.

In personal appearance Mr. Bryan gives one the idea of rugged strength. He has a massive head, set solidly on square shoulders. He has a broad, high brow, and his hair is black and straight. His chin and jaw are eloquent of determination.

In a large degree he has what is termed personal magnetism. Whether he is speaking from a public platform or chatting pleasantly in private, he gives the listener the idea that here is a man who is thoroughly in earnest, who means what he says and who would say it even though he knew his words would shake down his own hair on his head.

But the chief charm of Mr. Bryan is in his voice. It has been well described by a speaker from a public platform or chatting pleasantly in private, he gives the listener the idea that here is a man who is thoroughly in earnest, who means what he says and who would say it even though he knew his words would shake down his own hair on his head.

Besides being an orator, Mr. Bryan is always a student and a worker. For more than 20 years he has been adding to his store of facts concerning the struggle of man for liberty in all ages. All his education seems to be as fresh before him today as when he was a young law student with his future all before him and no disappointments to blur his vision.

In four years Mr. Bryan has matured rapidly. When he made that famous speech which swept the Chicago convention off its feet four years ago, his face had an almost boyish freshness about it. Today there are lines about his nose and eyes, the generous mouth is firmer and the massive jaw seems more solidly set. But he is as fit, as

MRS. WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

There is no affection about Mr. Bryan's mode of living. He has always been used to a simple life. When he puts on an old straw hat, sticks the bottoms of his overalls into top boots and goes out with a hoe into his potato patch, he is doing nothing new. He was brought up on a farm and has gone back to farming whenever the opportunity has offered.

The young men gave a boning party followed by a dance at the Athletic club Tuesday night, July 5, complimentary to the visiting girls.

hair, well groomed, well groomed and well booted—if you see such a woman on a public platform where the Democratic nominee for president is speaking to a cheering audience or catch a glimpse of her in a campaign car, you will know that it is Mr. Bryan, and you may be sure that these brown eyes are taking note of all that is going on.

Mr. Charles Sheldon of Cantonment, Ind., was in the city a few hours Friday. He was enroute to Concordia where he is interested in the lumber business.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung trouble. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all divided countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Becher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germs, but cures inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists. Price 25c. For sale by—A. K. PIERCE.

BAD COMPLEXIONS Dry Thin and Falling Hair and Red Rough Hands Prevented by CUTICURA SOAP.

MILLIONS use CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafes, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes, for ulcerative wetness, and for many sensitive antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleaning ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, and hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the best skin and complexion soap, best toilet and best baby soap in the world.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor. CUTICURA SOAP, in doses the size of a pea, cleanses the skin, and softens the scales, crusts, and dandruff, in the form of washes, for ulcerative wetness, and for many sensitive antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery.
